

ENDING SLAVERY

FORUM ON COMBATTING
SLAVERY TODAY

TUESDAY 27 MARCH 2018

VENUE

ACC&C CHAPEL
CNR KINGS AVE
& BLACKALL ST
BARTON ACT 2600

TIME

7.30PM TO 9.15PM

7:30 - 8:15: public engagement and discussion
8:15 - 9:15: engagement with political leaders
(following the rise of Parliament)

An invitation to the public to hear firsthand about legislation for A Modern Slavery Act in Australia; listen to people who have been involved through organisations to combat slavery; to mark the occasion of the INTERNATIONAL DAY OF REMEMBRANCE OF THE VICTIMS OF SLAVERY AND TRANSATLANTIC SLAVE TRADE (25 March).

SPEAKERS:

CHRIS CREWTHER MP Chair, Foreign Affairs and Aid Sub-committee responsible for Parliamentary inquiry into combatting modern slavery

MR LUIS C deBACA Former US Ambassador to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons

MR CHRISTOPHER WOODTHORPE Director, United Nations Information Centre, Canberra

CAROLYN KITTO a co-Director of STOP THE TRAFFIK

GRACE THANGASAMY University of Technology Sydney; Lawyer and Forced Marriage Project Manager, Anti-Slavery Australia.

PANEL OF FEDERAL MPs

HOSTED BY The Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture, Anti-Slavery Australia, STOP THE TRAFFIK and the United Nations Information Centre Canberra